INAUGURAL ADDRESS

by Mayor Charles H. Felker

Gentlemen of the City Council:

We ought to enter upon our duties as the governing body of the City of Rochester for 1941 with a spirit of sincere thankfulness that our nation and our city have been spared the misery and destruction which have been visited on so many communities in so many parts of the world during the last few months. Let us strive to show that we appreciate the great blessings of peace and security in our homes by avoiding as much as we can petty bickering and dissension.

The best thanks and appreciation that we can show toward our fellow-citizens who have displayed their confidence in us is to provide as good an administration of our municipal affairs as it is possible to give. In order that we may have no ill-advised or hasty legislation, we should take time to deliberate and to consider; time to go among our constituents and talk with them, for we are here to represent all the people of our city and not merely a clique or faction. Let our deliberations and purposes be kept open at all times.

Unfortunately and unavoidably, I am not as well acquainted with the actual management and operation of many of our city departments as I hope soon to be. Such suggestions and recommendations as I may make in this inaugural must be along general terms. However, I wish to briefly comment upon the work of some of the departments of our city government and outline the general course which I trust we may be able to follow during the coming year.

Public Schools

The public school department is unquestionably the most important single responsibility of our municipal government. Not only does the school system demand our largest appropriation of money, but it merits our keenest care and watchfulness that our citizens of tomorrow may be good Americans, able and intelligent enough to take their place in our democracy.

Rochester is extremely fortunate in its possession of a very fine educational plant, particularly the Spaulding High School. We must not lose sight of the fact that it is the teaching staff which determines the success or failure of our educational system. No one should begrudge the amount of money expended so long as our schools are showing good results in training our youth.

For a number of years past it has seemed to me that Rochester with its five elementary schools, sixty teachers, and eighteen hundred pupils ought to comprise a single supervisory district and not be forced to share the superintendence of its schools with any other community. Perhaps our present legislative delegation can effect this change in conjunction with the State Board of Education, if the proposition meets with general approval. The additional cost to the City ought not to be excessive, and our enlarged system should have its own supervisory officer as it had for so many years.

Library

An important adjunct to our school system is our fine public library. Reading is a great resource to our older citizens as well as to our school children, and I cannot permit this opportunity to pass without giving a word of especial commendation to our faithful and efficient librarian and her competent corps of assistants.

During the past year the library has received a considerable addition to its floor space and equipment which should take care of the needs of its physical plant for several decades to come.

Water Works

Rochester's water system has long been a source of pride and satisfaction to the community. Under the prudent management of its experienced and able superintendent the system has been considerably expanded and has consistently paid for its own expansion. Public health and fire protection both depend to a large extent upon the purity and sufficiency of our water supply.

While I have not yet thoroughly inquired into the needs of the water and sewer department, it seems to me that I ought to recommend at this time instead of long extensions in the services the maintenance of the present high rate of efficiency in this department and the conservation of the existing lines.

Highways

The management of the streets and highways of our City is today one of the most difficult and important problems that confront us. The public at large demands paved and well-drained streets and highways that are kept clear of snow in winter and smooth and clean in other seasons. In fact, there is a tendency to expect as much in our small municipality in the way of streets and sidewalks as is provided by cities much larger and wealthier than is ours.

What to do and how to do it is a very perplexing question in this department. I wish to take this opportunity to recommend that the committee should make itself familiar with the condition of the entire highway system before recommending repairs or rebuilding of any specific road or street, so that those highways that are in the poorest condition and those streets most used by the public may receive the department's first attention.

Maintenance should be the primary concern of this department. It is a very easy thing to permit our roads and streets to fall into a state of disrepair, and constant care month by month is undoubtedly cheaper and more satisfactory than to allow seriously bad conditions to develop.

Fire Department

Our fire department seems to be efficient and well managed. The equipment is kept in good serviceable condition and both materials and men are ready for prompt action when it will do the most good. Every thinking citizen should commend this department's policy of trying to make the public conscious of the need of fire prevention and the efforts of the Chief and Board of Engineers in investigating and trying to eliminate possible fire hazards.

Public Buildings

During the past year plans have been drawn and a contract let for the general repair and remodeling of our City Hall. Many repairs are very obviously demanded by the state of the building and the increased needs of many of the city departments which occupy the building.

I trust that the Committees on Public Buildings and Finance will give freely of their time and attention to the oversight of these improvements so that we may feel satisfied that economy of operation may be promoted and the future needs of our municipality may be served.

Police

We should constantly bear in mind that in many cases our community is judged by our travelling visitors from the character of the police officers whom they encounter. Physical force and agility is by no means the principal requirement of a good police officer. He must be a man of integrity and unquestionable character, always courteous and friendly, quick to warn and admonish rather than to punish petty infractions, yet constantly alert to the safety and security of the public at large. He should be able and willing to subordinate his personal prejudices and partisanship to his duty of equitably enforcing the law.

The permanent force of police has recently been enlarged to a point which should permit satisfactory police protection at East Rochester and Gonic at such times as it seems necessary.

Purchasing Committee

Permit me to take this opportunity of calling to your attention the provisions of Chapter XX, Section 2, of the General Ordinances regarding the power and duties of the Purchasing Committee:—

“Section 2. Unless otherwise provided by the city council, said committee shall purchase all materials and supplies for the city or any department of said city, except the public library, provided, however, that the city council may authorize the head of any department, official or committee, to purchase at his or its discretion any small or miscellaneous articles.”

This ordinance should be obeyed and the purchasing committee should specify standards for our various requirements and should request open, competitive bidding wherever such procedure is feasible.

Planning Board

During the past year it has been suggested that the City Council should establish a Planning Board for the City of Rochester. I wish to recommend your careful study of this proposal and the setting up of such a board. Unquestionably its work could be very useful in encouraging the orderly, planned growth of our city and in discouraging haphazard and expensive developments. The research of a Planning Board is an essential prerequisite to the establishment of zoning.

Finances

The following is a statement of the Gross Funded Debt of the City of Rochester for the year ending December 31, 1940:

Water Construction Notes (payable from Water Department Revenue) .....	$67,669 99
Sewer Construction Notes .....	10,991 28
Public Improvement Notes (for Factory Court Parking Area) .....	9,136 20
Sewer and Water Construction Notes (at Spaulding High School and Frisbie Memorial Hospital) .....	9,000 00
New Schoolhouse Lot Notes .....	16,000 00
Fire Equipment Notes .....	5,229 00
Surface Drain Construction Notes .....	2,257 12
Highway Construction and Equipment Notes and Bonds .....	59,552 40
Public Library Notes .....	24,000 00
City Hall Notes .....	4,000 00
Total Debt .....	$207,835 99

The above total debt is divided into the Water Construction Debt of $67,669.99 which is payable from the revenue of the Water Works, derived from water rates, and the Municipal debt of $140,166.00, which is payable from tax levies. This is a net increase in the funded debt of $14,012.75 during the past year and is an increase of approximately $87,000.00 since December 31, 1936.

The amortization schedule of our funded debt calls for repayment of $39,142.67 of City obligations during 1941, an increase of $5,155.42 over the amount payable in 1940. In this connection, permit me to call to your attention the fact that the 1940 City Council has authorized the borrowing of $37,000.00 for the library addition, City Hall repairs, and water and sewer extensions which notes have not yet been issued. In other words, we are pretty well assured that no substantial reduction in funded debt will be possible during 1941 because of previous authorizations. This condition obviously incites the question, "When and how is this process of constantly increasing municipal debt going to be stopped?" Are we going to just let it keep rolling along, an ever increasing burden upon our taxpayers, or are we going to curb our human urge to build, buy, or perform something big on the time payment plan? You, gentlemen, will be forced to provide an answer to these questions.

Some of you may feel that by painting such a dark picture, I am implying prospective bankruptcy for the City of Rochester. Such a possibility, I am aware, is extremely remote, but the inherent soundness of our financial position should not tempt us to deviate from a pay-as-you-go policy. A municipal policy of constantly going a little deeper into debt is a poor example for our citizens, to say the least.

The increase in funded debt during the past four years has been accompanied by a rising tax rate which has gone from $28.86 in 1936 to $33.53 in 1940 making an increase of $4.67 per thousand of assessed valuation in four years. This increase has come about despite the fact that the City's total assessed valuation has increased approximately $700,000.00 in the same four-year period. Prudence alone would seem to demand that we should curb this ever increasing rate of taxation. During the year just past the Federal Government has initiated a spending program for national defense unparalleled in the history of our nation. The cost of this great program must inevitably be borne by all the people. New taxes will be levied to provide the necessary revenue for carrying out this great program and all property owners and wage earners will be forced to devote an increasingly large percentage of their incomes to the demands of our re-arming nation.

Self-interest, also, ought to dictate strict economy on our part which will produce a lower tax rate. Today industry moves from place to place with startling suddenness and frequency. Economical government, reflected in a low tax rate, tends to increase the competitive advantages of our manufacturers and merchants over those in other communities, which in turn should benefit all those employed in the favored community.

In considering the charter under which Rochester is governed I cannot help but feel that our system of government is far from being as logical and efficient as our citizens have a right to expect. The principle of the plural executive of committee superintendence of departments is not designed to give us a business-like administration. This criticism of our fundamental law should not be construed as a criticism of you gentlemen. You spend many hours of your time in deliberation and consultation with no recompense and, often, very little gratitude for your services. I trust that you will all give freely of your time and energy in a spirit of cooperation that our City may be governed in a satisfactory manner despite obvious defects in the system.

As the elected servants of the people let us resolve (on this day for good resolutions) to be ever faithful to the trust that has been reposed in us. We should work together for the best interest of our city and conduct its affairs upon sound business principles. We should manage its property as though it was our own, and expend its money (the product of the labor and thrift of our fellow-citizens) as if it was coming out of our own pockets.

We Americans are fortunate above price in possessing the rights and privileges of democratic government. It has been said that democracy is corrupt, decadent, deserving to be supplanted by some form of dictatorship or oligarchy. Let us give the lie to those who despise our fundamental liberties. Let us, in our small way, by the wisdom and good judgment which we display in our public acts, proclaim to the world that we are worthy of the right to govern ourselves.

REPORT OF CITY MARSHAL

To the Honorable Mayor and City Council:

Gentlemen: In submitting the general activities for the year 1941 I must first offer my sincere thanks to the Honorable Mayor, Police Committee, and members of the City Council. I must also express my appreciation for the splendid consideration, co-operation, support and faith you have entrusted in my ability to reorganize and train a police force worthy of your high expectations.

The new year has brought new problems. These problems are yours as well as the Police Department's. We are now confronted with an "All Out National Defense" and the preservation of our internal security has increased the quantity of work that is being pursued. To meet the increase and influx of new and added duties, I can only assure you, that we as a police organization humbly recognize the responsibilities entrusted to us and will always consider the high calling of law enforcement to be an honorable profession. We shall be loyal to our duty, our organization and our country. We shall support and defend the constitution of the United States against all enemies, foreign or domestic; we shall bear true faith and allegiance to the same. We will strive constantly to cooperate and promote co-operation between all regularly constituted law enforcement organizations and officers in the performance of duties and mutual interest and obligations.

I have inspected all gasoline and kerosene pumps and liquid measures. Inspected scales at stores, for farmers, poultry dealers, grain mills, woolen mills, schools, hospital, laundries, shoe shops, coal, ice, and junk dealers, and peddlers; Boston and Maine scales at the freight, baggage, express and track; also measuring devices at box shops. Inspected fuel oil trucks, and measured wood dealers' trucks.

I reinspected when called upon, reweighed butter, bacon, lard, bread, potatoes, and other commodities.

I confiscated one scale and one liquid for defects.

Respectfully submitted,

JAMES B. CALLAHAN,
Sealer of Weights and Measures.

REPORT OF CHIEF ENGINEER OF FIRE DEPARTMENT

---

To the Honorable Mayor and City Council of the City of Rochester:

Gentlemen: I herewith submit my annual report for the year ending December 31, 1941.

There were 34 bell alarms and 254 still alarms in the City proper, 40 calls in East Rochester and 35 calls in Gonic, making a total of 363 calls for the year. Alarms in the City proper include 12 auto fires, 1 false alarm, 16 out-of-town calls and 62 brush-grass fires.

The estimated value of the building damage by fire this year:

Value of buildings .....	$454,700 00
Insurance on same .....	770,600 00
Losses paid .....	49,379 59
Value of contents .....	732,284 45
Insurance on same .....	577,275 00
Losses paid .....	77,321 15

We assisted East Rochester 6 times and Gonic 6 times during the year.

Out of town calls: Strafford 7, Barrington 3, Berwick 4, New Durham 1, North Rochester 1.

Last year I recommended the exchange of the Reo 1925 truck for a light truck. A Chevrolet one-half ton truck was purchased and used to a good advantage this year.

Four new hydrants have been installed at different locations.

There are many improvements needed which I hope will come along from year to year, such as our fire alarm system, hose and the exchange of equipment to prevent it from becoming obsolete and thereby cause a general expense during any one year.

At this time I wish to express my appreciation to his Honor, the Mayor, members of the City Council, committee on Fire Department, members of the Board of Deputies, members of the Department and persons who have rendered us help throughout the year.

I extend my sincere appreciation for the fine support given me during the year.

Respectfully submitted,

GORDON G. CUSHING,
Chief Engineer.

REPORT OF LIBRARIAN

---

To the Board of Trustees of the Rochester Public Library:

Gentlemen: The forty-eighth annual report of the Rochester Public Library is herewith presented:

For complete and detailed information concerning the activities of the year you are referred to the table of statistics which follows.

Two things are always of primary importance. One is the growth of the library, the other is its use by the public. Growth does not necessarily mean volumes added; rather, are those additions worth while. This year a loss in volumes is shown brought about by a general weeding out of out dated books. Nine hundred and eighty-seven have been discarded, lost or injured, three more than were added. The number of accessioned volumes in the library at the present time is 37,968. This number does not include the 1,700 books of the Franklin McDuffee library.

With a limited income much thought must be given to the selection of books, first consideration being given to the needs and demands of the community. The additions must round out, supplement and bring up to date, as far forth as possible, all informative material. There must be books which will keep the active minds of our readers abreast of the times, as well as books which will furnish recreation and entertainment. That the selection has not been far wrong has been made evident by the approval of the patrons.

Use for which the library exists cannot be measured entirely by the quantity of books given out but rather, how well is the library meeting the needs of the people.

The decrease of 13,289 in the circulation at the main library does not signify a loss of the reading habit. Books, even novels, are larger today and non-fiction, especially books about world affairs, are not quickly read and the latest news broadcasts are a necessity. Patriotic zeal is rampant, women are knitting and men are working long hours to make ready our defense. Reading in many instances has turned to study along the line of special work or service.

Three times since the library first opened its doors to the public has the United States been involved in war. In 1898, the circulation increased but in 1917 and 1918 it dropped by thousands only to come back with new vigor after the armistice. During 1941 people have taken less time for reading.

The children's room has been an active center during the year and as you will notice shows a good increase in both circulation and readers. Groups of girl scouts and classes of grade pupils have visited the library to find out about its methods and look over the interesting books. A great deal of attention has been paid to the selection of books for this department. The room is very crowded and we regret that more room cannot be provided.

The attendance of readers and students shows a gain of 1,257. The comfortable chairs and better lighting have made the rooms much more inviting. Many of the readers stay an entire afternoon or evening. Others take time out from a busy day to pause a while and look over the periodicals.

The former trustees' room which has been rearranged for the Franklin McDuffee library has proved adequate. Here amid the treasured furnishings and pictures from his room at Hanover has been placed this collection of valuable books.

The branch libraries at Gonic and East Rochester have been carried on with great efficiency and all necessary records and exchanges have been made to the main library. Owing to the resignation of the librarian the Gonic branch was closed for three months. Since the first of October it has been in charge of Mrs. Levi Meader who devotes one room in her home to the little library.

At the beginning of 1941, chaos reigned at the library and almost unsurmountable difficulties loomed ahead. We could hardly visualize a happy ending with order and system restored and many of our dreams realized. Today this report goes out from the remodeled and redecorated library, with greater space for work, better equipment and additional shelf room where each book may be found in its proper place. Much praise and appreciation is due to those who made it possible. Many words of commendation have been heard. Patrons like to come and linger. The freshly tinted walls and the colorful display of interesting books present an attractive picture.

The work of cleaning and shelving more than 40,000 books and hundreds of volumes of unbound magazines seemed a Herculean task. It was finally completed, pictures hung, museum and other rooms regulated. Following this ordeal was an inventory of the entire library, the first since 1938. Only two books remain unaccounted for at this date. This was followed by a careful weeding out of undesirable books, a process which is still going on.

In all the work of the year the librarian has had the splendid cooperation of every member of the staff including the extra assistants and the janitor who have worked long hours, with untiring zeal, determined to see the thing through. Sincere appreciation and much praise is due them for their efforts and their interest.

The Board of Trustees as well as the librarian wish to express their grateful thanks to each individual donor for the gifts to the library during the year—the flowers from the gardens of the members of the Haven Hill Garden Club and others; the curios, books and periodicals; the revolving book rack presented by Mr. and Mrs. Burt Cooper; the gift of $5,000 from the late Mary A. Greenfield given in memory of her husband, the late John Greenfield, the interest to be used for books. The interest shown in the library by these gifts has been much appreciated.

Respectfully submitted,

LILLIAN E. PARSHLEY,

Librarian.

Rochester, N. H., December 31, 1941.

REPORT OF SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

To the Rochester School Board:

I herewith submit my annual report which is the ninth under my supervision and the fiftieth in the series. This report, like others prepared by me, aims to present a discussion of practices and policies in which the public may have an interest. Without going into technical details we wish to present a broad view of the way your school system functions. Should any individual desire more information than is here given he has only to ask and it will be cheerfully supplied.

SIGNIFICANCE OF PUBLIC EDUCATION

Our discussion may well start with a consideration of the real significance of public education since in money expended and in its far reaching implications it is almost universally the most important of all municipal activities.

The founding fathers were an earnest, God-fearing, foresighted and substantial people who came to the New World with a serious purpose. They were concerned with the perpetuation and the quality of the state they established at the cost of tremendous sacrificial effort. To achieve for them and their posterity what they rightly desired, that state must have its roots deeply imbedded in imperishable realities. They saw at once that their society could worthily exist only under competent enlightened leadership.

The system of public education which was originally designed for the training of leaders eventually was expanded to provide similar opportunities for all children. In this way, from their time to ours, the principle of informed leadership and an intelligent citizenry has been securely builded on an efficient school system. There is now general recognition of the power of education under both proper and improper planning.

In a world of unrest and catastrophe, the American people have withstood the shock of economic and political impacts that have rocked the foundations of other nations in a way to change their governmental structure. We, too, might have given way to hate and abandonment of popular rights but for the bulwark so wisely established by our forefathers. The solidarity of our people is a fitting tribute to the American public school. The manner in which our educational system is maintained and expanded is a tribute to the sound thinking of those who have enjoyed its benefits.

NATIONAL DEFENSE TRAINING

Industrial training for national defense has been the distinct contribution of our school department in 1941. On January 13, 1941, the first group of fourteen men began an intensive period of training in the high school machine shop. The period of training is ten weeks in length with forty hours per week or a total of 400 hours if no individual time is lost. The largest number who can be efficiently instructed at one time is fourteen. All expenses of this work are paid from government funds administered by the State Board for Vocational Education. Supplies and materials of instruction, light, power, heat, repair and maintenance are paid for on a monthly basis. Extra janitor-time, clerical service and the instructor's salary are paid twice a month. While the City of Rochester pays all bills except those for salary and service, full reimbursement has been or will be made to cancel all such payments.

Defense training is conducted under the auspices of an Advisory Committee which equally represents employers and employees. That committee, appointed by the chairman of the School Board, consists of Henry K. Dow, chairman, Robert D. Marsh, Harold I. Pratt, Francis E. Splaine, Harry E. Denning, State Employment Service, Marc Lemoyne, John E. Burke, W. P. A., George Sanfacon, Arthur S. Rollins, Superintendent of Schools and Secretary to the Committee.

The committee recommended the employment of John D. Wellander as instructor.

Trainees are supposed to be enrolled in equal numbers from applicants approved by the W. P. A. and the State Employment Service. That plan could be followed in the very beginning but for some time now we have had to depend more on the larger number of applicants certified by the State Employment Service. At all times there has been a long waiting list of men who are anxious to get the instruction offered.

It is possible that we may be asked to add some supplementary courses to the pre-employment refresher course just described. Inquiries have been made regarding facilities for such work in mechanical drawing, electricity, sheet metal and wood work but as yet no formal request has been made. The supervisor of defense training has reported that our shop accommodations are ample for the kind of work that may be desired. When and if our cooperation is sought every effort will be made to give it.

Among the advantages and benefits of the defense training we have been able to provide, the following are worthy of mention:

1. There is a swing away from the tendency among young people to seek white collar jobs only.
2. The dignity of labor is given new emphasis.
3. The economic rehabilitation of a large number of men has been accomplished.
4. It has been possible to make a real contribution to national defense.
5. Possibilities have been revealed whereby our educational service to the public may some day be appreciably enlarged.

ADULT EDUCATION

Adult education in evening school classes was conducted in the winter of 1941 and was resumed on October 28, 1941. The present series of classes is scheduled to continue until April 14. No class is organized or maintained unless fourteen members are enrolled. Instruction is by members of our high school faculty, an approved substitute and one teacher from a neighboring high school. We have classes in woodworking, electricity, machine shop, sewing, shorthand and typewriting. The work is financed by a registration fee of one dollar and a charge of fifteen cents per night. The classes meet from seven to nine o'clock on Tuesday and Thursday. A 1941 fall enrollment of approximately 93 as compared with the 1941 winter enrollment of around 148 reflects the influence of military service and labor market demand.

ADULT RECREATION

The program of adult recreation as worked out by Mr. O'Leary last winter met with a good response and seemed well worth repeating in the winter of 1942. Accordingly, a new and somewhat enlarged plan is ready to put into operation. It is hoped that we can thus offer more service to the community and, at the same time, promote the wider use of school facilities which was the desire of those who so generously gave of their time, interest and money.

It is with a great deal of satisfaction that we see a growing tendency to make more extensive use of our public school property. Every request that is consistent with regular school needs has been and will continue to be granted. With the advice and consent of the Schoolhouses and Grounds Committee the detail of handling these matters is left to the superintendent of schools.

HIGH SCHOOL RENTAL

Early in the occupancy of the Spaulding High School it was necessary to draw up a schedule of rental charges to be made for the use of various rooms. For your convenience and that of the public those rates are here stated. They are based on a minimum period of two hours. Any fraction of two hours over the stated period is charged as two-hour use:

Cafeteria	$4 50
Auditorium	15 00
(plus $5 if projection booth is used)
Library	4 50
Music Room	3 75
Gymnasium	5 50

EXTENSION COURSES FOR TEACHERS

The School Board very kindly gave me permission to use the high school building for an extension course in reading conducted by Dr. Donald D. Durrell of Boston University. The first meeting was on October 24, 1941, and the last one will probably be held on January 21, 1942. The instructor reports that the class membership is the largest he has ever had in extension work. We have had teachers registered from Berwick, Lebanon, Barrington, Lee, Madbury, Dover, Somersworth, Rollinsford, Strafford, Farmington, Milton, Wakefield, Middleton and Rochester. It has thus been possible for us to share our opportunities with teachers from neighboring communities while Rochester teachers received especially valuable help. In my opinion the course with Dr. Durrell has done more to improve reading than anything else that has been offered in many years.

The 1942 School Board will be asked to authorize the use of the high school building for another extension course in the last half of the year. This time I should like to arrange with the University of New Hampshire for a course in guidance under Dr. Arnold Hanson. Guidance will assume greater significance in the lives of our young people as the demand for services increases and it will be indispensable in the reconstruction period which seems inevitable when war-time industrial tension is relaxed. We shall do well now to prepare for what is seen ahead.

SCHOOL HEALTH

Rochester has gone a long way since 1936 in the promotion of school health. Physical examinations are now available for all pupils in our schools whose parents give their permission and throughout the year they receive routine service from the School Nurse. My previous reports have emphasized and this one reaffirms that no other service exceeds in importance what we do to establish good health in our young people so that they may fully profit from educational advantages.

Very significant progress in health work was accomplished in the winter of 1941 when a dental clinic was set up. Every dentist in the city gave generously of his time until the dental needs of a selected group of children were fully met. At this time I wish to make public acknowledgment of the civic spirit of our dentists and to voice my deep appreciation. No attempt has been made this fall to start the clinic again but it is hoped that can be done early in 1942. We should hesitate to ask any professional group to give what the city ought to provide for itself.

The only way such provision can be legally made to serve all children regardless of school attended is through an appropriation by the City Council for that specific purpose. I therefore recommend that the City Council be requested to appropriate the sum of $250 for the support of a dental clinic in which all selected children may share the benefit.

SALARY SCHEDULE REVISION

In recognition of the rising cost of living the School Board, at the December meeting, voted to increase the pay of janitors and to contract for their services on a 50-week basis. The longer term of employment will make possible a more satisfactory summer repair program and will eliminate the hiring of extra help for the maintenance of school grounds.

A proposed salary schedule for teachers was also presented to the Board to be acted upon after a waiting period of one month. Favorable action by the Board will undoubtedly go far to relieve Rochester schools of the unfortunate operation of the law of supply and demand which already is bringing disastrous results in many school systems. When teacher salaries are too low to compete with business and industry the lack of balance is evidenced by

- (1) frequent replacements
- (2) fewer young people preparing for the teaching profession
- (3) forced employment of poorly qualified teachers.

School efficiency pays the price for any one of the manifestations noted.

We shall do well to give thoughtful attention to the following resolution which was unanimously passed by the National Association of Manufacturers at the convention in New York City on December 5, 1941.

EDUCATION

WHEREAS, the essence of a system of popular self-government is the ability of the electorate to deal intelligently with the public issues submitted to it for decision, and to select those who are to represent it in public affairs with wisdom and sound judgment, and

WHEREAS, the National Association of Manufacturers consistently has believed that this requires a system of public education which will enable the citizen of our republic to receive the education which will enable him to make his maximum contribution to society and which society can afford to provide, and

WHEREAS, the increasing devotion of public funds to national defense purposes will and should require governmental economy in other directions and may presage inadequate consideration of our educational needs and financial requirements.

BE IT RESOLVED, that the administration and conduct of Public Education is an essential public service; that its reasonable financial support constitutes a necessary claim upon our American society to which other public services of lesser value should be subordinated.

CHANGES IN TEACHING STAFF

At this point it may be well to review the changes in our own teaching force since the close of school last June:

High School

Mrs. Beatrice Ham Dickerman	Resigned
Miss Charlotte Floyd	Resigned
Paul Nordman	Resigned
Carl Harriman	Resigned

Elementary

Dorothy Langley, School Street 1	Resigned
Marjorie Shaw, East Rochester 5-6	Resigned
Helen Lightbody, Music Supervisor	Resigned December 19, 1941

New and replacing teachers who have been elected are:

Carl Bartlett	High School
Samuel F. Frolio	High School
Wilfred Eddy	High School
Stafford J. Connor	High School
Blanche Bean	School Street, Grade 1
Frances Crego	East Rochester, Grade 2
Muriel A. McAllister	East Rochester, Grade 5
Ruth Phyllis Iovine

High and Elementary Music, January 5, 1942

Of these teachers Misses Crego and West are filling positions that did not exist a year ago but were made necessary by increased enrollment at East Rochester and Gonic.

Nine new teachers represent a greater change than has been experienced in many years.

SCHOOL ENROLLMENT

Enrollment in Rochester schools shows a slight decrease from the 1940 figures which is all accounted for in the high school division. Elementary registration is approximately the same, hence there are no present indications that we face immediate or extensive reduction in public school membership. In view of our geographical location, our industrial advantages, and our school offerings it seems reasonable to expect a gradually increasing school population.

SCHOOL LUNCHES

Our school lunch program is being carried on the same as last year but with one significant change. We have been able to secure surplus commodities for use in the cafeteria to enable us to serve lunches without cost to several pupils who could not otherwise have a hot lunch. The commodities received are added to our inventory and their equivalent value is then used for the free lunches. An effort will also be made to secure surplus commodities for use at the Maple Street School when hot lunches are resumed in January, 1942.

A financial statement of the cafeteria operation will be included in the report of the Headmaster.

TRANSPORTATION

Throughout the year our school transportation has operated without more than the usual minor points of friction. Those points relate to control of pupils on the bus, time of departure of buses, quarrels among pupils after leaving the bus and requests for additional transportation privileges. While such questions may individually loom large, they do not assume too much importance when we consider that approximately 2,000 pupils per week are carried to and from their homes.

The major problem that will confront the Board in the next few years seems likely to be one of extension to serve rapidly growing sections of the city. On certain established routes the time may soon come when all pupils cannot be served by our present schedule. That schedule is now so carefully worked out that equipment is being used to capacity. Further extension either to relieve congestion or to cover sections where no route now exists will mean more bus equipment.

AIR RAID DEFENSE

National emergency growing out of war has injected into our school planning a type of protective preparation which we earnestly hope may never be needed. Plans are taking shape to protect our schools as shelters for pupils in case of air raids and to train them by frequent drills to the point where emergency effects may be minimized. Four members of this department attended a school of instruction for air raid wardens held at the State House in Concord from November 17 to Deember 4. The information and instruction thus obtained will be made available to all Rochester teachers. We shall be ready if an emergency occurs.

PROGRAM OF WORK

Changes will be recommended from time to time as they appear desirable to bring our high school offerings into closer relationship with the opportunities and demands of new conditions. The State Board of Education has been asked to approve for credit a course in first aid which will be offered to juniors and seniors as an extra study. It will not be substituted for any other credit since it counts as one-fourth unit only. The approval requested and promised will give our high school the distinction of being the first in the state to offer this timely work.

The Rochester Board will likewise be asked to approve a request for substitution in our accepted program of work. In place of solid geometry in the second half of the year we wish to offer a course in aviation. Mr. Montrone is a qualified instructor by virtue of his training and experience as aviation instructor in the military service. The proposed course will include a thorough application of mathematics in a very practical way and will comply with the request that all schools which can shall offer training to boys who are interested in aviation as a career. Your approval will enable our school to take a position of leadership among New Hampshire schools in a field contributing directly to national defense.

My conclusion to this report is quite properly an expression of deserved appreciation of the cooperation of the Rochester School Board during the past year. I am grateful for every assistance given me in the administration of Rochester schools.

Respectfully submitted,

ARTHUR S. ROLLINS,
Superintendent of Schools.

REPORT OF HEADMASTER OF HIGH SCHOOL

Mr. Arthur S. Rollins, Superintendent of Schools
Rochester, New Hampshire

I herewith submit my sixth annual report as headmaster of the high school.

ENROLLMENT

On September 9, 1941, we opened your high school for the third time in the new building with an enrollment of 930 students. This is a drop of 43 students from the figure of 963 in September, 1940.

On February 1, 1942, our present enrollment is 882 or 49 less than we had at the close of school last June.

This drop in enrollment is to be expected and is no different than the situation as reported in other high schools throughout the country. Because of the availability of good jobs both in defense and non-defense industries, numbers of students who, had conditions remained as they have been during the past five years would have stayed in school, have left to take these jobs.

Grade	7	8	9	10	11	12	P.G.	Tls.
Enrollment September, 1941	116	160	194	170	151	132	7	930

Present Enrollment February 1, 1942	116	156	173	162	141	128	6	882

TABULATION OF REASONS FOR LEAVING SCHOOL

	Grades
	9-12	7-8
Moved Away,	15	12
Employment,	25
Lost Interest,	19	4
Army, Navy, etc.,	2
Married,	1
Ill Health,	4
	66	16

The above figures suggest the need for us constantly to examine our offerings in terms of the needs of our students. For a number of years we have been sending from 20 to 30 percent of our graduates to college. The remainder have gone into employment or into various types of training schools.

For the large number who go into employment it is probable that we could do much more for them than we have done. With our school shops about to go on nearly twenty-four hours of operation a day, here is a suggestion of the needs which industry has for skilled workers. Our problem is to make it possible for more boys to get this type of training as part of their school course. We have made it possible for some boys to take Machine Shop as an extra from three o'clock to four o'clock in the afternoon, but one hour a day is altogether too little.

Our responsibility for these children who leave school as soon as they are sixteen or because they have no interest in what they are studying is greater now than it has been. We need to do more in building strong bodies, in teaching the fundamentals, and in building civic consciousness.

NEW OFFERINGS

Most of our attempts to meet the needs of the present crisis have occurred in the extra-curricula field, although there have been some modifications in our curricula. We are now offering a course in Aeronautics to juniors and seniors. Numbers of our students are now having an opportunity to take work in First Aid under competent instructors. The drill work in Place Geography has been given a new incentive through war news from a world-wide front. We are about to produce through our Industrial Arts classes 200 model airplanes for use by the government. The Rochester Industries course, which we are now offering for the second year, has added significance this year in view of the defense orders which many of our local industries are now engaged in.

ACTIVITIES OF THE GOVERNMENT

We are receiving more and more frequently requests from the Federal Government for assistance in the war effort. The course in Aeronautics developed from a governmental request as did the work in model airplanes, some of which will be used by the Army and some by the Navy at their training schools. We have also been requested by the government to send information concerning the availability of our gymnasium and trained personnel for civilian conditioning. All of these activities indicate the determination of the government to utilize the schools wherever possible, and they also indicate the possibility of even greater demands on the school in the near future.

REPORT OF GRADUATES

In June, 1941, we graduated 124 students, the majority of whom are either employed or in some higher institution. It is significant that large numbers of them have left Rochester to work in defense industries in various parts of New England, and we are receiving information regularly from large numbers of our graduates of recent years who are now in the Army or Navy and are seeking advancement in those services. Of the students sent away to college in September, 1941, only one was reported at the end of the first semester as doing unsatisfactory work.

TEACHERS' ACTIVITIES

Numbers of the high school teachers have identified themselves with various civilian defense activities during the past year. Several have qualified themselves as instructors for Air Raid Wardens' courses. Several are qualified as instructors in First Aid. Still more are serving as Air Raid Wardens and are qualifying to serve as First Aiders. A number of the teachers are taking extension courses in reading and in vocational and educational guidance. All of these activities naturally require much time, but your teachers appear to be anxious to do their part and they are willing to put the time into it. During the last half of last year as well as the last half of the current year the high school used some half dozen cadets from the University of New Hampshire and from Keene Teachers College. Not only do these cadets get valuable training under supervision, but they also contribute to the activities of the school through their individual talents and through their ability to take over certain classes, thereby relieving a teacher for work in guidance.

PUBLIC ACTIVITIES

The school has tried to cooperate with local and state organizations sponsoring events which have sound educational outcomes. We have conducted a Prize Speaking Contest for our own students this year for the second time. We have participated in the American Legion Oratorical Contest. We are participating again, as usual, in the New Hampshire Original One-Act Play Contest and in the New England Drama Festival. Our musical organizations have given several concerts and are now working on the annual operetta. Our athletic teams have carried out the usual schedules. We have been interested in activities which would not only be of general interest to the public, but would also give specific training to as many different students as possible. Some of the most valuable contributions which children get out of their school come from these experiences in work with others outside the formal atmosphere of the classroom, but within the jurisdiction of the school itself. Any well directed activity which gives large numbers of boys and girls these experiences is worth the time and energy that it requires. In this connection we have just formed a local chapter of the National Scholastic Honor Society which is aimed to promote scholarship and to develop leadership. The following is a list of our public entertainments for the current school year indicating the different types of activities of this nature.

November	Public Evening Session
	Musical Concert
	Book Fair
December	Dramatic Club Play
February	Prize Speaking
March	Operetta
	Hobby Show
April	One-Act Plays
	Musical Concert
May	Physical Education Exhibition

AIR RAID PRECAUTIONS

After considerable experimentation a plan for protecting our students in the event of daylight air raids has been worked out. Some students whose parents request it will be permitted to go home. Some have been detailed as Couriers by the Chief Air Raid Warden. Fire squads and first aid squads have been appointed and assigned duties. The first floor corridors will be used as air raid shelters. It is hoped that none of these precautions may be necessary, but we are holding weekly drills so that our students will know what to do in an emergency.

STUDENT HELP

We have been able to carry on our Student Work Program this year with the assistance of funds from the National Youth Administration in much the same way that we have in the past. Our quota, however, has been cut and it is reasonable to assume that Federal funds for the National Youth Administration may continue to diminish. At the present time we have some twenty children on work projects, the most important of which is the school laundry. Since there is a saving of some $300 by our undertaking this project, it appeared to be a worthwhile activity.

INTRAMURAL PROGRAM

With the assistance of a number of teachers on the staff we have continued to expand our intramural program with seasonable activities every afternoon from three to four for large numbers of students. This would not be possible were it not for the fact that these members of the faculty have been willing to give their time and assistance to Mr. O'Leary in the carrying out of this program. It is unfortunate that a large number of our students who travel by bus cannot enjoy this program. It may be that some modification should be made to make this possible. If civilian conditioning is imminent the place to start it is with youth. This applies not only to the younger children, who are in their habit forming stage, but also to the seventeen and eighteen-year olds who may have to answer their country's call within a few years. It also may be that some modification of our program is advisable to build stronger bodies as well as to teach people how to enjoy healthy recreation. Our gymnasium and its facilities are used not only by the regular physical education classes and the varsity teams, but also by the intramural groups and the adult recreation groups two evenings a week. In this connection it should be stated that we are making every attempt to keep constantly before everyone who uses this building, students and adults alike, the necessity for taking good care of it. It is gratifying to report that large maintenance and repair items caused by careless use of the building are non-existent.

CAFETERIA

Appended to this report is the Cafeteria Balance Sheet for the school year 1940-41. During the current school year some replacements have been made out of profits and for the time being because of reserves on hand, we do not intend to increase prices although food prices in general have advanced sharply.

The Balance Sheet shows a business of about $9,000 on which we netted $182.67. This profit has been reduced somewhat this year through the purchase of additional equipment so that our present current profit is somewhat under ten percent. We have received several shipments of Surplus Commodity food from the Federal government with which we have provided free hot lunches to certain students.

STUDENT ACTIVITY ASSOCIATION

The Student Activity Association's Financial Statement shows a business of about $9,000. As usual, football pays for basketball and baseball. Although we started the school year 1941-42 with a deficit in football of $382.40, we paid off $1,400 worth of bleacher notes and saved considerable interest money. Since the first of October we have had rather heavy admission taxes to pay to the government, which include taxes on our collection of dues as well as on sale of tickets. This will appear as a very appreciable item in next year's report.

In conclusion may I offer on behalf of the staff our services for the improvement of the educational facilities of Rochester. Your teachers have evidenced their willingness to give of their time and efforts.

Respectfully submitted,

CARROLL W. PEAVEY,

Headmaster.

REPORT OF THE SCHOOL NURSE

To the Superintendent of Schools:

I herewith submit my report as School Nurse for the year of 1941.

During the past year health services in our schools have been carried on with little change in routine. Weekly visits were made to the schools, frequent inspections were done, the children were weighed and measured three times, and all students had the vision tested. The new students in the school system were given physical examination by Dr. N. K. Chesley. This service is very valuable in the primary grades because it enables one to find and correct any physical defect early in the school life of the child. It is of value to the high school students in that the physical education program is arranged according to the physical fitness of the student.

The dental service, which was organized in the fall of 1940, was carried on until the spring of 1941 with the following tabulation resulting:

Children attending .....	63
Cleanings .....	63
Extractions:
Temporary teeth .....	59
Permanent .....	5
Fillings:
Amalgamated .....	108
Cement .....	75
Treatments .....	10

This work was invaluable and I sincerely hope that the clinic may be reorganized shortly. The program started would be very effective in a few years if the clinic could be carried on without interruptions and the number treated increased each year. The dentists participating in the work did the highest type of dental work possible and were very much interested in the program.

The program for the care of the crippled children of this district has been under the supervision of Mrs. Carrie Price, Registered Physio-therapist, and Miss Ann Lally, R. N., of the State Board of Health. Mrs. Price and Miss Lally do the treatments and exercises which have been recommended by the physicians at the Orthopedic Clinic at Manchester. The Red Cross Motor Corps has been very generous in their efforts to transport the orthopedic cases to Manchester for diagnosis and treatment and I would like to thank the Motor Corps drivers for their kindness.

Through the generosity of local charitable organizations it has been possible to supply milk to undernourished children, furnish clothing to others and correct many physical defects. I would like to express my appreciation in behalf of the children for these many favors.

I take this time, Mr. Rollins, to thank you and the teachers for their cooperation and kindness in the past year.

Respectfully yours,

NORA C. SCAHILL, R. N.,
School Nurse.

INAUGURAL ADDRESS

by Mayor Walter H. Wood

Gentlemen of the Council:

As we enter upon our duties as the agents of the people of Rochester, elected to conduct the affairs of our City through this new year, we are aware that these are not normal times; the conditions we encounter are unusual conditions; the problems we will face will be unusual problems. America is at war. The whole world is at war. Our country and her allies are struggling with every resource at their command to break the power of evil and oppression which has gone berserk in Europe, Asia and Africa. Our nation is in this war not alone to aid her allies and to liberate those peoples abroad who have already been enslaved, but the fight is for the preservation of the very lives and liberty of our own families.

Under these circumstances neither the people in this community nor the people in any other community on this continent may now conduct their affairs with regard only to their own convenience and welfare. Each proposal we consider, each act we perform must be weighed in its relation to the national program. It may seem wise to break some precedents or depart from some customs which may have been established with wisdom in more normal times. It may become necessary to curtail some services to which we have become accustomed. Whatever changes, whatever sacrifices the national emergency may require, be assured, gentlemen, the people of Rochester will understand, they will approve. However, insofar as consistent with the national program, we must conduct the business of the City in a normal manner, efficiently providing for the health, safety and convenience of all the people we serve. But as conditions are today, scarcity of materials, equipment and labor may definitely prevent what in normal times might even be considered to be necessary expansions of our several services, and even though not entirely blocked by these conditions it will probably be wise to postpone most new construction programs until we find more favorable circumstances.

I would now call briefly to your attention, for your consideration, a few conditions and problems which confront the several departments this year:

The Committee on Water Works should consult with the Superintendent and become familiar with the situation that exists in our water system. It is extremely doubtful if they should recommend or sanction any extension of the service of this department, unless necessary to meet the needs of the defense program, until, by some means, the source of supply is augmented, as the delivery part of the system has already been expanded about to the limit of the present supply. Careful, detailed study of this situation will be made, with the authorization already given, and with the information gathered in this study, it can be determined what, if any, changes in the system should be made, and plans can be formulated for action at such time as it may seem necessary and wise.

There has been much discussion relative to the order of the State Board of Health that the City of Rochester, and certain industrial plants, must take action to abate the nuisance caused by the emptying of untreated sewage into the Cocheco River. A serious situation unquestionably exists, and the problems arising from it can only be solved after thorough and competent investigation of all phases of it. Such an investigation has been authorized, and you will be fully and frankly informed of all the data gathered by the survey and of any recommendations which may be made, and then the Mayor and Council working together will determine the most satisfactory solution to these problems.

In my several previous contacts with officials of the State Board of Health, I have found them to be very fair minded gentlemen, and I am sure that in this matter they will be reasonable and considerate and will not expect or wish us to take any action which would be disadvantageous in the present national emergency.

Fortunately the affairs of the Water and Sewer Departments have been ably administered and we find these departments well equipped at a time when tools and equipment are very difficult to obtain.

Now when we are considering the possibility of air raids and of fires started by incendiary bombs, our Fire Department assumes even greater importance than usual and we must be alert to the needs of this branch of our defense organization. The Committee for this department must work closely with the fire chief so as to be familiar with the personnel and equipment and keep the council informed of their requirements.

Our Police Department is another branch which must be maintained at a very high degree of efficiency and many additional duties devolve upon this department in connection with the defense program. The Police Committee must bear the responsibility for us in the maintenance of this organization at the high standard required in these times and they will find it necessary to cooperate very closely with the marshal in the administration of his department.

The Committee on Roads, Bridges and Drains with the Street Commissioner, should inspect and keep familiar with conditions on our highways, and I recommend that sufficient maintenance work be done to prevent undue deterioration of our roads, bridges and drains, and that our roads and sidewalks be kept passable and safe during the winter months, and that insofar as practicable new construction be postponed until more favorable conditions exist.

Our School Department must be maintained even in time of war and as prices are advancing on practically all items of equipment and supplies, and as rising living costs point to salary adjustments, we may expect to have to consider a larger budget for this department. Examination of pupils in the schools has shown the need of a great deal more attention being given to the care of the teeth. This finding has also been corroborated by the experience of draft board examiners. In the Spaulding High School a dentist's chair and dental tools were provided with the hope that this need might be met. I will recommend that there be included in the annual budget a sum of $250.00 for the purpose of operating a dental clinic for all Rochester school children, regardless of what school they attend.

The Overseer of the Poor has provided for all needy applicants, distributing the funds appropriated where his investigations have shown the most good would be accomplished. It will be necessary to provide funds this year to continue the work of this department as nearly all of those requiring this assistance are children and unemployables whose condition has not been changed by general employment increases.

The Finance Committee, in preparing the budget for this year, must take into consideration the present emergency and estimate the amount of money necessary to carry on our part of the defense work, in addition to the ordinary operation expenses, which should be kept as low as practicable.

The Purchasing Committee will need to exercise unusual care this year in procuring materials and supplies and I recommend that they consult with department heads very soon and investigate sources of supply, availability and prices of materials and probable price increases. Competitive bids should be secured whenever practicable and purchases made at such times as seem most advantageous.

Our public library has recently been enlarged and improved but we must not let our interest wane or feel that all has been provided that will be necessary for a long time. In this as well as in all departments of the City we must be continuously conversant with requirements so that funds may be distributed where the greatest good can be accomplished for the greatest number.

The Committee on Public Buildings should inspect all buildings of which they have charge and make sure that they are properly cared for and that necessary repairs are made to prevent undue deterioration. This committee should also determine if the arrangements in the buildings are satisfactory or if alterations ought to be made to provide for better or more economical use of them.

I believe it to be an unwise system which requires the dismissal of a man, competent and experienced in the care of a building in which the operation of delicate or complicated heating equipment is involved, merely because of a change in political administration, and I am sure that no one of you will criticize if in my appointments I do not follow such precedent.

Gentlemen, under our City Charter the administration of the fiscal, prudential and municipal affairs is vested in the Mayor and the Council, who sit and act together and compose one body, and in their joint capacity are denominated the City Council. Therefore, we must work together, the Mayor does not act independently and without the knowledge of the Council, and the Council does not act independently and without the knowledge of the Mayor. Your Mayor assures you that you may expect his cooperation and the Mayor expects your cooperation.

In conclusion may I remind you and myself that we are here, not to govern, nor to rule, but to serve. The voters representing the 12,000 and more people of this City have selected one of themselves to act as mayor and eighteen of themselves to act as councilmen, that we whom they have thus chosen should do the things which the whole group of citizens would be too unwieldy to perform. It is the whole group we represent and serve not any restricted locality, faction or party, and we must remember that we must all work all the time for the welfare of all.

And now, as we undertake these tasks which lie before us we can be confident that with honest, sincere endeavor and with the help of Almighty God, we will produce results of which we need not be ashamed.
